

U.S. Department of Transportation
Federal Aviation Administration

June 30, 2026

David Schultz
807 Bigler Ave
Clearfield, PA 16830

Dear Mr. Schultz:

This letter authorizes you to serve as a Recognized Air Boss (RAB) at any basic, standard, or complex air show.

You are authorized to direct only airshow participant aircraft within the airspace and on the airport as described in Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) Form 7711-1, Certificate of Waiver or Authorization.

Limitations:

1. You may not provide or imply that you are providing air traffic services.
 - a) As an air boss, you are not authorized to direct non-airshow participant operations, such as air carrier departures/arrivals and/or overflights. Non-airshow participants must be controlled in accordance with current Air Traffic Organization (ATO) policies and procedures, as well as current Federal Aviation regulations.
 - b) This LOA must be in your possession when providing air boss services.

This authorization expires on December 31, 2029.

Should you have any questions concerning this matter, please contact this office at (414) 486-2790 or via email at joseph.saunders@faa.gov

Sincerely,

Joseph Saunders
Manager, General Aviation Operations Group
AFS-830

cc: International Council of Airshows