

U.S. Department of Transportation
Federal Aviation Administration

June 10, 2026

Greg Witmer
319 Flagstone Circle
Coatesville, PA 19320
gwitmer@schultzairshows.com

Dear Mr. Witmer:

This letter authorizes you to serve as a Recognized Air Boss (RAB) at any basic, standard, or complex air show.

You are authorized to direct only airshow participant aircraft within the airspace and on the airport as described in Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) Form 7711-1, Certificate of Waiver or Authorization.

Limitations:

1. You may not provide or imply that you are providing air traffic services.
 - a) As an air boss, you are not authorized to direct non-airshow participant operations, such as air carrier departures/arrivals and/or overflights. Non-airshow participants must be controlled in accordance with current Air Traffic Organization (ATO) policies and procedures, as well as current Federal Aviation regulations.
 - b) This LOA must be in your possession when providing air boss services.

This authorization expires on December 31, 2029.

Should you have any questions concerning this matter, please contact this office at (414)-486-2970 or via email at Joseph.Saunders@faa.gov.

Sincerely,

Joseph Saunders,
Manager, General Aviation Operations Group,
AFS-830 GAO

cc: International Council of Airshows

